

Privacy Policy

JAS Networks Inc is dedicated to the fundamentals of protecting your privacy on the Internet. Our privacy policy follows:

JAS only collects personal information from our visitors on a voluntary basis. Personal information may include name, title, company, address, phone number, email address, etc. We do not require this information to obtain access to any part of our public corporate site. The personal information we collect is only used by us to process an order that has been placed or for marketing our products, events, and/or services. We do not sell, rent or transmit personal information to other organizations.

As a matter of policy, JAS does not sell any customer email information to third-party organizations. JAS customers also have the right to unsubscribe from JAS' own informational and promotional mailings.

If you have questions, please email us at info@jasnetworks.net or write us at:

Please give us your full name and phone number in case we have questions.

Our web server collects the domain names (not the email addresses) of visitors to our web site. This information is aggregated to measure number of visits, average time spent on the site, pages viewed, etc. JAS uses this information to measure the use of our site and to improve the content of our site. We also monitor browser brands and versions to track technological trends.

JAS' web site may contain "links" to other sites, and we make every effort to link to sites that share our high standards and respect for privacy. However, we are not responsible for the content or the privacy practices employed by other sites.

JAS does everything it can to keep the information of our online visitors as secure as possible against unauthorized access and use. All information is protected by JAS security measures, which are periodically reviewed.
